

John Webster Jones

April 21, 1967 - April 30, 2020

John Webster Jones passed away unexpectedly due to asthma related health complications on the evening of April 30th, 2020 in Chandler Arizona. He was born on April 21st, 1967 in Mesa Arizona, the youngest of six children to James “Jim” and Shirley Jones. He was 53 years old at the time of his passing. John was known for his quick humor, lover of life, and ability to make fast friends anywhere he went. John’s earlier occupations included multiple operating positions with numerous produce cooling plants in Southern California, with his most recent occupation being a residential painter. John is preceded in death by his father James “Jim” Donald Jones and mother Shirley May Jones, brother James “Jimmy” Gayland Jones and sister Melinda “Mindy” Jones. He is survived by sisters Cynthia “Cindy” Louise (Keith) Kerr, Teresa (David) Eeds, and brother Jason Donald (Sabene) Jones, numerous nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and abundance of loving friends from across the state. A private and closed service will be held on Thursday, May 7th for immediate family only. At the request of John’s family, they would like to encourage all those who knew him and are in mourning, to celebrate John’s life in their own way while respecting social distancing norms and abiding by CDC guidelines for group gatherings. John will be laid in final rest by his sister Mindy at the Mesa Cemetery, in Mesa Arizona.
