“ Growing up near Greensboro, NC I was usually some 3000 miles from my Aunt Chunky as she lived in California. I agree fully with my sister Jayne's comment that one of the highlights of our young lives was when Aunt Chunky traveled by air across the country to visit her "eastern" family. Later, the distance became greater, and visits all but disappeared, as I eventually settled in South Africa, married, and have a wonderful daughter and grandson living in Menlo Park, Ca. I am grateful that in 2005 Aunt Chunky and my wife Judy were able to meet in Mesa while Judy and I were traveling in the US. There is an old saying that "absence makes the heart grow fonder". This is certainly true in my case.

Too many memories to mention, but one of my fondest as a lad was to see that big Super Constellation, with its three tail fins, settle onto the Greensboro-High Point airport runway. Aunt Chunky had arrived.

Aunt Chunky, you are the last of seven great siblings, all of whom influenced my life. You made your century. Rest in Peace.

“ Some of the happiest memories of our childhoods involved Aunt Chunky. We anticipated her visits for weeks in advance. Even the trip to the airport turned into an adventure. Aunt Chunky always made everything so much fun. She was quite a joker, and could be counted on to come up with ideas to get us all laughing. She spent time with all the children and made each of us feel special.

With a loving and generous heart, she showed kindness to everyone. Neither of us recall ever hearing her speak harshly to anyone. We remember and are grateful for how kind and patient she was with my brother, Mike. He especially enjoyed their long conversations (using pen and paper) about politics and other topics.

As an adult, I was so excited to visit Aunt Chunky and Uncle Harry a few times in California. They were both so welcoming and went out of their way to be sure I had a wonderful time. Aunt Chunky kept a bountiful stock of all my favorite cookies and candies. As a result, I gained 30 pounds on one visit! She taught me to play pinochle which, to this day, is perhaps my favorite passtime.

All of us nieces and nephews have lost our dear aunt. It is especially hard because she was the last of her generation. Now we don't have anyone to turn to when we have questions about family details. I guess we are on our own now.

I've been thinking about all those who were there to greet her as she arrived in heaven. What an amazing family reunion that has to be.

“ I'm so glad that Mom and I were able see and spend time with Aunt Chunky last summer. We talked and looked at photos. I showed her pictures of my lab mix and she thought she so ugly! So I showed her a picture of my bulldog and she said, "Oh...that one's worse!" Lol

I love and miss you, Aunt Chunky.

“ Our Aunt Kay was a wonderful, caring, and thoughtful lady. She was very close to her family and will be missed by all.
